Re: Martin Luther King, Jr.
Security Matter - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 20, 1965, that he learned that during a stay of Martin Luther King, Jr. at the Americana Hotel, New York, New York, on May 20, 1965, there was a bomb threat received by a hotel switchboard operator. The source said the switchboard operator received the call at 1:15 p.m., from an anonymous caller, who said there was a bomb planted in the hotel. However, the caller did not say the bomb was intended for any specific individual.

The source advised that King's reason for being a guest at the hotel was to address a gathering of the American Jewish Committee at 8:00 p.m. that night in the hotel ballroom.

According to the information from the source, King was to have met Vice-President Hubert Humphrey in the hotel shortly before 8:00 p.m. and they entered the ballroom together. Humphrey, the source said, was a speaker at the affair, but was a guest at another New York City hotel.

The source said he had learned that the New York City Police and the United States Secret Service were notified by the hotel shortly after the telephone call was received.

On 5/3/65 the Security Office, American Embassy, London, furnished a letter written by subject to the President of the United States dated 11/27/64. This letter expresses shock on the part of subject by the statement of the Director concerning Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING. He said the Director was not behaving like a responsible civil servant should and he believed it was time for Mr. Hoover's retirement. Subject then went on to protest U.S. intervention in the Congo. He commented that if the FBI was still receiving copies of letters like his, he was sure he would get a black mark against his name. He stated he was aware that several of his previous letters to the President were known to Navy Intelligence when he was interviewed by the Navy several years ago. A copy of subject's letter is enclosed. u

In view of subject's activities in London and the comments made in his letter, it is recommended that Bureau files and the files of the New York Office be checked for information concerning him and that London be advised. u

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

On May 29, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Clarence Jones and Stanley Levison were in contact on that date. According to the source, the principal reason for their contact was to arrange a time when they could meet to discuss the meeting of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), scheduled for June 9-11, 1965, in Warrenton, Virginia. They made an appointment for 3:00 PM, June 2, 1965, at Jones' office, 165 Broadway, New York, New York. X (u)

On June 2, 1965, at 3:07 PM, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Stanley Levison enter the building at 165 Broadway, New York City. Jones was observed entering the building at 1:40 PM. u

Cent. Lawen:

It is our studied opinion that "The Reverend" Martin Luther King should be thoroughly investigated and fully exposed for whatever cause he truly represents or is being used.

Our opinion of this individual is based on his conduct, many publications covering his past and present activities, his association with known Communist front organizations, Mr. Harry Truman and Mr. J. Edgar Hoovers evaluations.

The most frightening aspect of Kings operation is his blatant and overbearing disregard for local, state and federal law. This coupled with the obvious and continued lack of true, complete press coverage of Kings entire attack is indeed demanding of immediately thorough investigation and exposure.

Dear

Mr. Hoover received your letter of June 1st, with enclosures, and asked me to explain that information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. Therefore, he is not in a position to comment along the lines you have suggested.

In connection with this matter, Karl Prussion assisted this Bureau by furnishing information on subversive activities from November, 1949, to July, 1958, during which time he was compensated; however, he was not a Special Agent. His personal ventures, his opinions and comments are strictly his own and the FBI is not in a position to comment on these in any way whatsoever.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Enclosed is a leaflet distributed by the "Alert Americans Association." (Box 1222, L. A. 53) which reveals in the group picture taken in the Labor Day weekend of 1957, showing Dr. Martin Luther King.

According to this leaflet, it charged that this group "The Highlander Folk School" was a subversive organization and was abolished by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee. Furthermore, it said that "Mr. Karl Prussion, a counterspy for F. B. I. for twenty-two years, charges that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty Communist Front organization---."

Will you please let me know, if the above charges are correct? Are there any evidences which may prove that Dr. King did or now belong to any Communist front organization? Will he kept confidential if you say so.

It seems to me that there is a need of clarification to clear the climate of public opinion media.

Distribution of this leaflet and the reprints of this information and this group picture seems to give the public the impression that Dr. Martin Luther King is or was a member of "The Highlander Folk School" in 1957.

Unless a responsible U. S. government agency like F. B. I. clarify this, there will be more and more Americans who may accept this as a fact and an evidence.

In the public interests and in the hope of strengthening the internal security of our country may I urge you and F. B. I. to clarify this?

I have taken keen interest in the overall Soviet plan and strategem, --to create a "Sovietized Negro Republic" in America since July 1941.

The enclosed reprint of map, "New Negro Republic" and the portion of the Korean Underground Report of July 9, 1963 will indicate to what extent I have taken interest in the Negro problem in America related to the internal security of America and the external threats to U. S. security.

Hoping for a confidential reply.

God bless you

MARTIN LUTHER KING....AT COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL

The above picture was made by an employee of the State of Georgia, at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee during the Labor Day week-end of 1957. The photographer was sent to the Highlander Folk School by the Georgia Commission on Education. The Highlander Folk School was abolished by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee at a later date because it was charged with being a subversive organization.

Those numbered in the picture are:

1. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the Montgomery boycott and the Birmingham riots. Karl Prussion, a counterspy for the FBI for twenty-two years, charges that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty Communist-front organizations — more than any Communist in the United States. He is promoted and encouraged by the Kennedys.
2. Abner W. Berry of the Central Committee of the Communist Party.
3. Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Education Fund, Inc., The Transmission Belt in the South for the Communist Party.
4. Myles Horton, Director of Highlander Folk School for Communist Training, Monteagle, Tennessee.

These "Four Horsemen" of racial agitation have brought tension, disturbance, strife and violence in their advancement of the Communist doctrine of "racial nationalism."

Our Immediate Problem and Concern

Our two problems of immediate concern are the Soviet war plan calling for,

- (1) "besides Cuba, two or more advance bases close to America in order to deploy Civil defense troops prior to the first strike."
- (2) the Soviet war plan calling for, "Specialized Negro Liberation Civil Defense Units", - "to insure the Socialist camp an early victory."

For more than 40 years, Communist Russia through their agents using intrigue, conspiracy and political subversion had advocated "Negro Nationalism" and its plan to establish a separate Sovietized Negro Republic in America.

As early as 1932, the Communists in America had adopted a map known as, "New Negro Republic".

I first saw this map on July 1941, in Richmond, Va. It was after my talk before the Lion's Club at Hotel Marshall on the question of Japan's conspiracy and U. S. - Japan War. A colored man sought me out and showed it to me.

The Communists documents, (1) "The Negroes in a Soviet America", 1936, (2) "Negro Liberation", 1938 and (3) "The Communist Position On the Negro Question", 1932 gave credit to Joseph Stalin as the father of the idea, "Negro Nationalism", and a separate "Sovietized Negro Republic" in America.

The document, "The Communist Position on the Negro Question", 1932, declared, "We propose to breakup the present artificial state boundaries established for the convenience of the white master class and to establish the state unity of the territory known as the "Black Belt".

"In this territory we demand that Negroes be given the complete right of self-determination, the right to set up their own government, the right to separate if they wish from the United States."

Stalin failed to establish this separate Sovietized Negro Republic in America. But his successor Premier Khrushchev did establish a Sovietized government in Cuba, the first advance military base close to America, only 90 miles away from Florida.

The present Soviet war plan calls for, "besides Cuba, two or more advance bases close to America in order to deploy civil defense troops", including "Specialized Negro Liberation Units", - "prior to the first strike."

During World War II, while Russia was at war in Europe and needed America's help, the Communists in America played down "Negro Nationalism".

But the Japanese took advantage and tried to exploit the negro nationalism against America. Only the patriotism of many Negro leaders and the efficiency of the F.B.I. checked Japan's conspiracy against America.

Soon after the fall of Hitler, the attaches of the Soviet Embassy showed signs of interest in the Negro Question and the position the American Communist Party had taken in regard to Negroes.

On July 1945, the popular Negro leader, Mr. Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., better known as the "Manhattan Councilman" and Vice-President of the Communist Political Association resurrected the plan, "New Negro Republic". Since the resurrection of this plan, Negro Nationalism has grown too.

The Life Magazine, May 31, 1963 issue, pointed out, "Negro politicians sniffing the winds of popularity, are busy courting the Negro Muslims; - There may be as many as 100,000 in America."

The implication of "Negro Nationalism" to U. S. security under Communist inspired plans can be like time bombs.

It is no longer possible to consider the negro question as purely an internal problem or a domestic question. No matter what Khrushchev says about "peaceful Coexistence" the idea and plan fathered by Stalin in 1932, will plague America in the nineteen sixties.

Unless the Negro question be resolved soon, the prospect for a just and a peaceful solution will be most difficult after 1965.

1965 is Soviet Russia's banner year.

1965 is the year Soviet Russia will be at the height of nuclear war readiness, particularly in the field of nuclear weapons and its new delivery system, the "fleet of Space Platforms".

The Space Platforms are considered as Russia's ultimate nuclear space war weapon.

How many of us remember President Franklin D. Roosevelt's famous statement, "All we have to fear, is fear itself"?

His magical words electrified the American people and helped to lick the worst economic depression in our time.

It seems to this writer, since the Spring of 1962, the U. S. foreign policy is dominated by the "fear of nuclear war". The compromise on the question of Laos in 1961, the failure to force the Russian troops out of Cuba in 1962, the acceptance of status quo of the "Berlin Wall", all seem to be the children of fear, borne out of the hypnotized fear of nuclear war.

History proved again and again to us the "shadow-boxing" with dictators has not deterred them from aggressive wars.

The hope for a peaceful world without the fear of a nuclear war is not in the strategy of "Status quo containment of Communist nations in Europe, Asia and Cuba, but a bold action, as history taught us."

"Twelve Red Chinese military officers who returned to Peking from Lanchow, in Kansu Province in March 1965, revealed that since February 1, 1965, the first of Red China's long range underground missile launching center has been militarily operational.

The missile center is said to be located between Lanchow and Lintao, in the Kansu Province. It has a range of 6,600 miles.

According to these Chinese officers, they spent 2 years building this underground missile launching center. Russia supplied all the necessary equipments, missiles and engineers who specialized on building underground missile bases". End of report.

The Feb. 24, 1965, the Korean Underground report to President Lyndon B. Johnson revealed that on Dec. 7, 1964, Russia had promised to transfer to Red China, "One long range underground missile launching centers, — — —, on October 10, 1965."

As we are in a retaliatory role, it is entirely up to the aggressor to decide, not only when and where to strike, but also what means and strategies to employ. To exploit the advantage inherent in the initiative, an aggressor would make the fullest use of the element of surprise.

"Design For Survival"

by Gen. Thomas S. Power

1. "... We do know, however, that the Soviets possess considerable competence in three areas which could contribute to a variety of offensive space systems. These areas are: powerful boosters which make it possible to loft large pay-loads into orbit; advanced guidance systems which would permit accurate target coverage from space; nuclear weapons with several times the yield of our largest weapons.

"It is, therefore, within the Soviets' capability to produce space systems, either manned or unmanned, which could carry high-yield nuclear weapons and, through the unprecedented threat they pose, would gravely impair our deterrent. For instance, it is conceivable that we may wake up one morning and find a number of Soviet satellites floating in stationary orbits over every part of the United States. If the Soviets would inform us that these satellites carried multi-megaton nuclear weapons which could be released upon radio command from Russia, they would be in a strong position to blackmail us into any concession they might demand.

"We certainly must anticipate such a contingency, which is by no means farfetched or far in the future, and make sure that we have OPERATIONAL defense systems or measures to cope with it."

'Young Fry' Holds Commie Torch

By VERA GLASER

North American Newspaper Alliance

WASHINGTON—A new generation of radicals, many of them sons and daughters of hard-core Reds, is carrying the torch of communism in the United States.

Word is spreading that Moscow-inspired agitators have fastened like evil parasites on the civil rights and Viet Nam controversies.

But few know that the peddlers of discredit on U.S. policies often are the kind of identified Communist party members.

The young fry do not carry cards. They deny they are Communists. But a teen-age Red earns to live from mom and dad, who may be doing the same to escape prosecution under the Smith and McCarran Acts.

SCIONS OF THE COMMUNIST power structure, needless to say, find the present "far out" campus atmosphere warm and welcoming. If they can pursue their aims, libelously describing themselves as "progressives," "socialists" or "Marxists."

Whatever name they give it, the new generation is continuing its

The college campus is a legitimate arena for the most vehement political controversy—over policy in Viet Nam, Civil Rights, and all other issues. This two-part series is not intended to dampen students' ardor but to point out that, within certain campus political groups, small numbers of young radicals are carefully using the idealism of college students for their own ends.

parents' devotion to Communist aims. Many candidly say they are working for fundamental changes in the capitalist system.

One New York group of Peking-oriented "Marxists" practices karate (a death-dealing form of hand-to-hand combat) and maintains an arsenal, presumably for terrorism. Some of its members were involved in the violent Harlem civil rights riots.

Others, including military-age offspring of certain Communists, have signed a pledge not to fight on the U.S. side in Viet Nam. They agitate openly against U.S. "aggression" in Southeast Asia.

"The youth will determine the future. Therefore we Communists must help determine the future of American youth," was the gospel spelled out by the late Eugene Dennis, U.S. general secretary of the party.

DENNIS IS GONE, BUT DARK-HAIRED Gene Jr., a tough 22-year-old radical, and his wife, Elizabeth, are busy pushing the "line" at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. They work through the W.E.B. DuBois Club, described as "Communist-spawned" by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

In America it is not unusual for young people to challenge their parents' beliefs. The pattern of revolt, however, is much less marked among Communists, according to Charles Fox, a former Oakland, Calif., language instructor.

For the past four years Fox has published "Tocsin," an anti-Communist weekly relied upon by congressional sources as factual and well-documented.

At its peak in 1964 Communist party membership ran about 90,000. Today's best estimates place it at 10,000 with a circle of sympathizers extending to some 100,000. The hard core was reported by the California legislature, however, in its 1963 analysis of un-American activities, as "far more active than ever before."

Who are some of the second-generation radicals?

Where and how do they operate?

MARGARET CLARA LIMA, petite 22-year-old brunette history major at the University of California, is the daughter of Albert J. (Mickey) Lima, chairman of the Communists' northern California district.

Margaret, whose daddy has been in and out of courtrooms for failing to register under the McCarran Act, is a seasoned agitator who has been arrested at least three times. She has written for the Communist "People's World" and attended the Red-sponsored Helsinki Youth Festival where hatred of America was a central theme.

Margaret was tossed into jail

One
again recently as a demonstrator
in the "Free Speech Movement," which shook U.C.'s Berkeley campus to its foundations.

Many of the new breed are refugees from the old Labor Youth League, self-styled "socialist"
group which was labeled an arm of the Communist party by the Subversive Activities Control Board.

One such is 26-year-old Fred L.
Jerome, son of Viktor J. Jerome, Communist Party leader who served a prison sentence for Smith Act violation. A slender, intense graduate of New York's City College, Jerome currently edits "Challenge," voice of the militant Progressive Labor Movement (PLM).

Founded recently as a new U.S.
Communist party, PLM has pledged a "struggle on whatever level and with whatever forms are necessary (against) the gas-chamber plans of this country's ruling class."

Jerome, whose mother also is a PLM stalwart, has said he expects a revolution within the next few years.

PHILLIP ABBOTT LUCE,
twice indicted for violating the State Department's travel ban to Communist Cuba, recently revealed that PLM keeps a secret arms cache, a discovery he said caused him to abandon the group in disillusionment. He said his few members had "conducted the not practice on Long Island shore-ly before the Harlem riots."

In January Larry Wilford
Phelps, who had also visited Cuba illegally, was murdered in PLM headquarters in Harlem and the alleged killer awaits trial.

PLM claimed the arsenal, target practice and karate training are necessary to defend themselves against "police and other enemies."

Perhaps the best known of the young red-hots is 20-year-old Bettina Fay Aptheker of whom the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee reported:

"Miss Aptheker is the daughter of Herbert Aptheker, Communist Party, U.S.A., theoretician and National Committee member.
She has been the teen-age director of the New York Communist youth group Advance. Miss Aptheker recently transferred her Communist party membership to California, where she is attending college."

Plainly dressed, with long brown hair in an unkempt pony tail, Bettina has been a prime fomenter of the student revolution on U.C.'s Berkeley campus. She was among 814 demonstrators arrested in the "Free Speech Movement."

University President Clark Kerr said FSM's hard-core leadership came from Communists.

OPERATING IN SECRET OR

in the open. U.S. Communists have never ceased their fanatical struggle against the major adversaries.

—Get the United States to disarm.

—Use the race problem to stir hatred and violence against U.S.
authorities and discredit the nation abroad.

—Overthrow democracy for "socialism," a term used by Reds to avoid prosecution under the Smith and McCarran Acts.

With the world's eyes riveted on U.S. actions in the Dominican Republic, federal intelligence sources predict a new stream of vituperation from the nation's campuses.
They expect the theme to be carried out by speakers scheduled to address the Communist-oriented DuBois Clubs, many of whose members idolize Fidel Castro.

Domestically, moderate civil rights leaders wince as Communists attach themselves to the drive for Negro equality. The open-door policy toward Reds pursued by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee ("Snick"), they fear, may discredit the entire movement.

"There is evidence that Moscow supports (Viet Nam and civil rights) demonstrations. People go from one college to another. They are known," Rep. Gerald Ford, R-Mich., told this reporter. He said the evidence is of "a highly classified nature."

Dear Mr. Belcher! -

The enclosed clippings certainly should convince anyone, (in government or out) to believe the concern for Communism in Viet Nam should not stop there - Our country is in dire danger and it is high time something is done to stop the spread of this serious thing here at home. -

ON BACK OF QUESTIONNAIRE

THE CITIZENS' COUNCIL OF LOUISIANA, INC.

228 OIL AND GAS BUILDING

SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA 71101

Dear Friend:

On the reverse side of this letter you will see an actual photo taken in Montgomery, Ala. of the first billboard erected showing Martin Luther King at a Communist training school. We have been assured the cooperation of other patriotic groups across the nation in erecting the first 200 of these billboards as a means of "public education".

Through our TV investigation project (now in progress) we have learned that leftwing propagandists have invested MILLIONS to build the "image" of King. We can stick a pin in their hot-air balloon by erecting enough of these signs. Present goal is 807, but we might erect 1,000 to 1,500 if we get the help.

(One man has made available about 600 billboards just for repairing them, cleaning them up and paying land fees, where necessary. This is a tiny fraction of the cost of renting 600 billboards for 6 months.)

I am writing you to invite you to participate if you wish, either by erecting a billboard in your city or by helping with a cash donation. This project will cost a great deal of money to complete but it will be worth every penny that can be raised to expose to the nation the communist influence around King.

Remember, I'm not ASKING you for money. I'm merely giving you a chance to help out IF YOU WISE.

Sincerely,

Courtney Smith
Courtney Smith

Make checks payable to Billboard Fund, and mail to 228 Oil & Gas Bldg., Shreveport, La.

Incidentally, James Farmer who is leading the CORE invasion has advocated ON THE RECORD that land in the South be divided up among "Agricultural Collectives" as it is done in communist nations. This is a straw in the wind, indicating that some of these revolution leaders want to confiscate private property, and they will do it unless the nation is awakened. Leftwing newspapers may refuse to tell the whole truth, but we can tell the story on billboards and by word-of mouth if necessary.

This billboard at Montgomery, Ala. is the first of 807 scheduled for erection from California to New York. In foreground are Council officials.

Persons who want to sponsor a billboard in their city are invited to write to The Councilor, 228 Oil & Gas Bldg., Shreveport, or Orleans Citizens Council, 509 Delta Bldg., New Orleans. Poster sheets cost $3.75 per set. The Council has billboards ready for use in many Southern cities, but sponsors must make full arrangements in other areas.

"Just how far we can go with this billboard project depends on how much the public wants to help," commented Courtney Smith. "Dr. Emmett Irwin has suggested that $4,000 to $5,000 would help expand it properly. Anyone who wants to be a part can make out a check to the Council-Billboard Fund and sent it in."

[REDACTED]

Tuskegee, Alabama, advised on May 31, 1965, that Dr. Martin Luther King spoke at the Tuskegee Institute commencement exercises on May 31, 1965. There were no incidents. 67(D)

There was observed a Negro mass meeting held the night of May 31, 1965, at Brown's Chapel Church beginning at approximately 7:30 p.m., Central Standard Time, and ending at 10:30 p.m., the same date. There was an estimated attendance of 750 people. State and local law enforcement were on the scene.

The principal speaker was Dr. Martin Luther King who urged the Negroes to continue to register to vote and to register for public schools this fall.

Reverend L. L. Anderson, Dallas County Voters League, urged the Negroes to picket in the streets and in residential areas. No incidents occurred.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

I wished there were more like you. 6076

My reason for writing this letter is I need information on two subjects.

#1. The National Council of Church of Christ.

#2. Martin Luther King, Dr.

Both subjects have been discussed pro and con so much recently that I need true and honest information on both. The best place for me to get that is from you the Director of the F.B.I.

So I would apperciate any and all information you could send me.

Could you send me a list of good Books to read

Sincerely

[REDACTED] advised that he had received information from a source whom he declined to identify but whom he described as an individual active in the civil rights movement, whom he considered reliable, as follows:

Martin Luther King, Jr., is to be in Los Angeles on June 9, 1965, to lead a large demonstration which will be sponsored or supported by the Congress of Racial Equality, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee, and possibly the Urban League. The purpose of the demonstration is to focus public attention on the problem of Negroes and members of other minority groups obtaining employment in the construction industry. On the day of the demonstration, the sponsors are hoping to promote a temporary work stoppage in the construction industry in Los Angeles to further dramatize the problem. According to source, an effort will be made to make this the largest demonstration to date in Los Angeles and they hope to have as many as 25,000 to 30,000 demonstrators. Source stated, however, that if they can get 10,000 demonstrators, they will consider it very successful.

REC'D-READING ROOM
FBI

My dear Congressman:

I received your letter of June 1st enclosing a circular forwarded to you by Mr. H. R. Cordes, Jr., of Lafayette, California.

For your information, Senators Kuchel and Murphy have been in receipt of a similar circular sent by [redacted] and they referred the matter to this Bureau for the appropriate data in order to respond to [redacted]. I have written them and I have also communicated with [redacted] by letter dated May 13, 1965, concerning the issues involved. It was pointed out in these communications that due to the confidential nature of data appearing in our files pursuant to regulations of the Department of Justice, this Bureau is not in a position to furnish your constituent the information he has requested.

b7(c)

With respect to Karl Prussion, I would like to point out that he assisted this Bureau by furnishing information on subversive activities from November, 1949, to July, 1958, during which time he was compensated; however, he was not a Special Agent. His personal ventures, his opinions and comments are strictly his own and the FBI is not in a position to comment on these in any way whatsoever.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

COPIES OF THIS LETTER TO THE DIRECTOR

MARTIN LUTHER KING....AT COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL

The above picture was made by an employee of the State of Georgia, at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee during the Labor Day week-end of 1957. The photographer was sent to the Highlander Folk School by the Georgia Commission on Education. The Highlander Folk School was abolished by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee at a later date because it was charged with being a subversive organization.

Those numbered in the picture are:

1. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the Montgomery boycott and the Birmingham riots. Karl Prussion, a counterspy for the FBI for twenty-two years, charges that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty Communist-front organizations — more than any Communist in the United States. He is promoted and encouraged by the Kennedys.
2. Abner W. Berry of the Central Committee of the Communist Party.
3. Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Education Fund, Inc., The Transmission Belt in the South for the Communist Party.
4. Myles Horton, Director of Highlander Folk School for Communist Training, Monteagle, Tennessee.

These "Four Horsemen" of racial agitation have brought tension, disturbance, strife and violence in their advancement of the Communist doctrine of "racial nationalism."

DATE: 5/28/65

ReBulet of 4/9/65, regarding Bureau's desire to be kept advised of a law suit by Lt. GILLIGAN, NYCP against KING.

The New York "Daily News", Thursday, May 27, 1965, Page 5, Col. 1, reports that Police Lt. THOMAS R. GILLIGAN, whose fatal shooting of a teen age Negro boy touched off last summer's Harlem riots, filed two Supreme Court libel suits yesterday for more than 5 million dollars against MARTIN LUTHER KING, JAMES FARMER, and other civil rights leaders and organizations.

GILLIGAN's lawyer, ROY M. COHN, also disclosed that he planned to bring a third suit against NBC, in connection with the broadcasts last July, on which KING and FARMER appeared.

In his $1.5 million action against the Congress of Racial Equality and FARMER, its director, GILLIGAN charged that FARMER falsely accused him last July of then being in a mental institution for treatment. He also accused FARMER of urging his arrest on a murder charge in the slaying of 15 year old JAMES POWELL.

In a $3.75 million suit against KING, FARMER, rent strike leader JESSIE GRAY, WILLIAM EPTON and others, GILLIGAN contended that the defendants were responsible for printing and distributing a handbill with his picture which said he was "Wanted for murder".

CORE, the Progressive Labor Movement and the Harlem Defense Council were named in the larger suit. GILLIGAN said they had "conspired and maliciously and willfully participated in a plan to defame his good name and reputation".

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

On May 21, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on that date that a meeting of the Research Committee would be held at Harry Wachtel's office from 12:00 until 4:00 PM, on May 28, 1965. U

The same source has furnished information that when reference is made to a meeting of the Research Committee, it means a meeting of Martin Luther King and his advisors, and, in the past, has been held at Harry Wachtel's office, 575 Madison Avenue, New York City. U

On the morning of May 28, 1965, the same confidential source furnished information which revealed that Clarence Jones was in contact with Stanley Levison on that date. Levison inquired of Jones whether it would be possible for him to meet with Martin Luther King for thirty minutes on that date. According to the source, Jones told Levison that it would not since King would be tied up in a meeting (Research Committee meeting at Wachtel's). & (u)

The same source advised later during the morning of May 28, 1965, that Clarence Jones was in contact with an unknown man on that date and during their contact they discussed their plans for the day. Jones said he had to go down to the Astor Hotel, New York, New York, to confer with Martin Luther King about his legal difficulties arising over the Gilligan case. U

In regard to the Gilligan case, it is noted that Lieutenant Thomas Gilligan of the New York City Police Department (NYCPD) is suing King and others for libel arising out of the Harlem riots during the summer of 1964. Gilligan was the officer who killed a teenage Negro boy during a fracas in front of a public school in New York City. The suit against King is for remarks he reportedly made on the National Broadcasting System (NBC) in regard to Gilligan. U

On May 29, 1965, observations of the building at 575 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), disclosed that the following individuals entered the building: Andrew Young (Executive Director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC), at 12:42 PM; Bayard Rustin and John Lewis (Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, SNCC), at 12:59 PM; Martin Luther King and Bernie Lee (Assistant to King), at 1:02 PM; and Clarence Jones at 2:17 PM. These individuals left at the following times: Jones at 4:42 PM; Rustin and Lewis at 5:35 PM; King, Young and Lee left at 5:50 PM. L

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. U

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. U

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. U

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958. U

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates. (u)

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Lawyers Guild: U

"National Lawyers Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.) U
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.) U
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire, these offer a bulwark of protection.'

Dear Mr. Watson:

I thought that the President would be interested in the enclosed copies of items which recently appeared in "The Times," a daily newspaper published in Gadsden, Alabama.

This material pertains to a report that Representative James Douglas Martin of Alabama had stated that the President would expose information concerning Martin Luther King, Jr., when it would be politically expedient to do so.

The enclosures have also been furnished to the Attorney General.

DATE _____ BY _____

At approximately 7:00 p.m. May 23, 1965, [REDACTED] Atlanta Police Department, Atlanta, Georgia, advised that at 6:55 p.m. that date the Atlanta Police Department received a telephone call from a man who identified himself as Captain TOM KELLY, Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department.

KELLY stated that two white males, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], would arrive in Atlanta via Eastern Airlines at 9:00 p.m. May 23, 1965.

According to KELLY, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were "race haters", had weapons with them and were coming to Atlanta to threaten Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Subsequent to receipt of the above telephone call, [REDACTED] telephonically ascertained from the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department that this department did not have a police officer Captain TOM KELLY and could not substantiate the foregoing information regarding [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] advised that the Atlanta Police Department would take appropriate action even though the information in the aforementioned telephone call had not been substantiated.

At 9:36 p.m. May 23, 1965, a Special Agent of the FBI observed the arrival at the Atlanta Airport of Eastern Airlines flight number 733, arriving from St. Louis, Missouri, with negative results.

Files of the Kansas City Office of the FBI on May 23, 1965, did not reflect any information identifiable with the names [REDACTED] or [REDACTED].

Your letter of May 26th has been received.

With respect to your inquiry, information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. I trust you understand the necessary reasons for this policy and why I am unable to comment as you suggested.

I would like to point out Karl Prussion assisted this Bureau by furnishing information on subversive activities from November, 1949, to July, 1958, during which time he was compensated; however, he was not a Special Agent. His personal ventures and his opinions and comments are strictly his own and the FBI is not in a position to comment on these in any way whatsoever.

Dear Sir:

Recently at a meeting of some Republicans in this area there was a paper passed out which had a picture of Martin Luther King at a meeting with several avowed communists and on the other side an affidavit by Karl Prussion, former counterspy for the FBI stating that Mr. King has "either been a member of, or wittingly has accepted support from, over 60 Communist fronts, individuals, and organizations which give aid to or espouse Communist casuses."

I am an admirer of Mr. King and I don't believe he is a Communist sympathizer but I am unable to refute these statements with facts. I feel like a coward for not standing up in his defense. Could your department send me any information or suggest where I might get some literature to read which will help me?

SCHEDULED VISIT BY REV. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JOLIET, ILLINOIS,
JUNE 4, 1965
RACIAL MATTERS

[REDACTED]
advised the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) at Joliet, Illinois, May 25, 1965, that Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. will speak at a mass rally June 4, 1965, in Joliet, Illinois. This rally, which is sponsored by the Citizens Action for Racial Brotherhood (CARB), will be held at the Joliet Memorial Stadium located on the West side of Joliet on United States Highway No. 52. Dr. King has scheduled a two and one-half hour talk to commence at 7:30 PM that date. It is estimated the attendance will exceed 1500 people.

Prior to the rally, Dr. King plans to have a press conference at 5:30 PM in the Fairmont area of Joliet, a depressed housing area populated primarily by Negroes. Following the press conference, Dr. King will travel to the stadium.

This information was made available by the Rev. V. M. Herron, Pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Joliet and Executive Director of CARB at a press conference held at 2:00 PM, May 25, 1965, at Joliet.

Dr. King is scheduled to arrive at Joliet, Illinois, at 3:00 AM, June 4, 1965, and will depart Joliet at the close of the rally.

[REDACTED] advised the following individuals have been advised and are aware of the above information:

Honorable Maurice Berlinsky
Mayor, Joliet, Illinois

Pages 15003-15004. Congressman Waggoner, (D) Louisiana, spoke concerning connections between the Communist Party and leaders of the civil rights movement. He placed in the Record a column written by Mr. Ray Crowley which appeared in the May 20th issue of the Washington Post. Mr. Waggoner advised that the article "deals with the Red-tinged DuBois Club, named after the Communist who founded the NAACP." The article states that W. E. B. DuBois was a crusader for civil rights, supporter of Communist fronts, and joined the U. S. Communist Party at the age of 93. Mr. Waggoner also included with his remarks an item from the National Afro-American which states "Rev. Ralph Abernathy, a close associate of Martin Luther King, speaking in Philadelphia, rounded out remarks on civil rights with a plea for a negotiated peace in Vietnam and admission of Red China to the U.N."

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 24, 1965, that Harry Wachtel was in contact with Clarence Jones' secretary on that date to deliver a message to Jones that he (Wachtel) had been in contact with Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC), regarding the possibility of having a luncheon this week. King, Wachtel said, advised that a luncheon would be impossible this week since Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington) would be unavailable to attend. U

King, Wachtel said, also instructed that no additional "parties" be invited to the Friday meeting. U

According to the source, Jones, later on May 24, 1965, told Stanley Levison that he received word from Harry Wachtel that Bayard (Rustin) is not available this week (to attend a luncheon meeting) and that it has been decided that no additional persons be invited to the Research meeting on May 28. Levison commented that Wachtel is really maneuvering, that Jones should contact King and tell him that he, Jones, does not understand why. Levison said to tell King that Wachtel is attempting to make Martin his property, that Jones should say that it would be useful for the three of them to get together. X (u)

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. U

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. U

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. U

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Lawyers Guild:

"National Lawyers Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.)
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire, these offer a bulwark of protection.'

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 21, 1965, that on that date, Martin Luther King contacted Clarence Jones and discussed the holding of a meeting on May 28, 1965. King inquired if "you all" had ever made an agreement about "Stan" (Levison). Jones answered in the negative and King remarked that it was Jones, Bayard (Rustin) and another person who were supposed to talk to him. He asked why "they" didn't do it before the meeting because he would like "Stan" to be in on it. Jones agreed. U

The same source later advised on May 21, 1965, that on that date, Clarence Jones told (Harry) Wachtel, that Martin (Luther King) had contacted him and wanted him to talk to Wachtel about the calling of a meeting of the Research Committee on May 28, 1965. question whether Stanley could come to this meeting (Research Committee). Jones replied that this is the question that Martin raised with him. Jones again suggested that the four of them have lunch, and according to the source, discussed when this could be arranged. (The source had advised in the past that a Research Committee meeting is a meeting of Martin Luther King and his top advisors). U

The source further advised on May 21, 1965, that Levison was in contact with Jones later that day and told him that they would be meeting at Harry Wachtel's office on Thursday (May 27, 1965) and then go to lunch. Jones advised him that King had told him that he, King, wanted them to go ahead with the luncheon they had discussed. Jones then explained that King had gotten the impression from Jones that Jones did not want the meeting to take place at all and had told Levison this. Jones continued that when he had previously suggested a postponement he did not mean an indefinite one and told King so. He added that he had advised that this was a misunderstanding and that he felt it is important to hold the discussion because Levison can make a valuable contribution. Jones stated that Wachtel had said this could be so if Levison did come to the Research Committee meeting. X (u)

Levison commented that Wachtel would be the real stumbling block even more so than Rustin and Jones agreed. Jones stated that Wachtel was evasive about the date for the meeting and, when it was finally decided, he, Jones, volunteered to call Rustin but Wachtel quickly advised that he would take care of this. Levison remarked that this confirmed his personal feeling, adding that he feels that Rustin is fairly indifferent, but that Wachtel "is actively opposed to me.... because you are troublesome yourself for what he wants his position to be but when you add me it does something to him and he is going to fight whereas Rustin won't." A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on May 23, 1965, that Harry Wachtel and Bayard Rustin were in contact on that date concerning two items, specifically: a meeting of the Research Committee on May 28, 1965, and a meeting in Virginia on the 10th (of June, 1965). (u)

In regard to the first item, Rustin and Wachtel discussed whether Stanley (Levison) should be invited to attend the meeting. They agreed that he should not attend, and in regard to whether he should go to the Virginia meeting, they agreed that there should be a preliminary discussion before making a decision. Wachtel and Rustin said they would attend the Virginia meeting. (u)

With regard to the Virginia meeting, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 21, 1965, that Clarence Jones and Andrew Young of the SCLC, were in contact on that date. During their contact, Young said "we" (the SCLC) are planning another "Black Mountain type of meeting" in Virginia (alluding to the leadership meeting of SCLC leaders at Black Mountain, North Carolina, held in the past). The dates for the meeting, according to Young, are the 8th through the 11th (of June, 1965). The Citizens school staff will be there on the 6th, 7th and 8th, Young said. (u)

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Lawyers Guild: U

"National Lawyers Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.) U
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.) U
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. U

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. U

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. U

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958. U

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates. X (u)

My Dear Mr. Hoover,

We hate like anything to take up even a minute of your precious time, but there is one thing that is worrying me very much. Yesterday we heard a talk by a certain Mrs. Julia Brown. Did this woman ever work for the F.B.I.? Is there any truth to the public statement she made - that Dr. Martin L. King is a communist and works directly for them?

Hoping to hear from you and thanking you for any help that you can give me in this matter. If there is ever anything I can do for your department as a Religious Brother, please do not hesitate to let me know.

If ever you are visiting in this part of Wisconsin, we would love to have you here at the seminary.

With every personal good wish, and asking God to Bless your work, I remain,

My name is [REDACTED] and I am a senior at [REDACTED] High School in West Palm Beach. My "hobby" so to speak is current affairs and this is with what my letter will deal.

Although I am in complete sympathy with the Negroes' just cause, I am revolted by their so called leader, Martin Luther King. To me he is a rabble-rouser and a man with no regard for the law except when it fits his purposes. As I recall you once referred to him as a "notorious liar." This statement led me to believe you might hold some of the same sentiments that I hold for him. 12

Getting down to the point, I was wondering if you and your organization had any revealable information about Mr. King connecting him with leftist groups or any other un-American groups designed to weaken or destroy our system of government?

Since you might have information contrary to my beliefs, my letter will probably sound rather silly but Mr. King's disregard of the law at times and his zeal in arousing people's emotions to the point of violence have led me to believe that he is far from the "peace-maker" he is supposed to be.

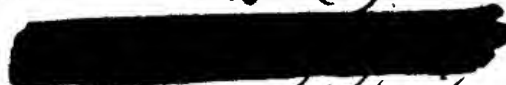

REC 1 100-106670-1405

Also, Mr. Hoover, is there very much evidence that the "Negro Revolution" is infiltrated by Communists on a large scale?

If the questions I asked can be answered I would appreciate a reply from you when it is possible.

It is noted that the first person with whom JONES talked on 5/19/65 (probably Dr. MELVIN BELSKY), asked JONES if it would be all right if ROBERT SCHWARTZ (ph) of the American-Israeli Bank could call JONES to give information concerning the negotiations (involving the SANE rally at Madison Square Garden). Subsequently, JONES was in contact with a Mr. SCHWARTZ (ph) and it is believed that this person was ROBERT JAY SCHWARTZ. New York indices contain no information of a subversive nature identifiable with this person.

Amended Report
DATE 10/1/99

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 19, 1965, that on that date, Clarence Jones and an individual whom the source did not know discussed the rally to be held by SANE (Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy), in Madison Square Garden, New York City, in June, 1965. Jones remarked that "his" (believed to be Martin Luther King) only consideration was that he wanted to determine whether this was the most effective way in which "he" should participate in the legitimate concern and protest about the Government's policy in Viet Nam. Jones continued that "he" had given some thought about getting people in the Inter-Faith Church Movement such as Bishop Pike from California and Eugene Carson Blake, and people in the church movement active in civil rights movement, to initiate their own kind of activity either independently or in conjunction with activities such as the SANE Madison Square Garden rally. Jones added that "he" wanted to feel out the people in the church movement about this before he committed himself to speak at the Garden, that "he" felt it would be a more natural form of his participation if he brought the elements of the Inter-Faith Church Movement, active in civil rights, with him in any protest about Viet Nam.

Re: Martin Luther King
Security Matter - C

Communist Infiltration SANE
Internal Security - C

The man who was unknown to the source stated that he did not know if (Martin Luther) King knew it or not but there is a large clergy movement in the peace movement. This person added that the reason he contacted Jones is that they had heard that King had turned down being at the rally because he was concerned about hurting the voting rights bill and because it was politically unwise. Jones wondered where this idea originated and was told that it is the feeling within SANE itself. U

The unknown person also stated that they had heard that King had been invited to speak at another Madison Square Garden function earlier the same week which concerned anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union. Jones said he could not imagine King speaking at that function. According to Jones' contact, this is the reason he could not attend the SANE rally because if he went to one he would have to attend the others. U

The unknown individual also remarked that if King would attend, the rally would attract twice as many people and assume national and international importance. He also stated that the Women's Strike for Peace was trying to get to King one way or another, that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) people had been at some of the meetings, and several people from the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) had been involved. He continued that they felt it would be a desirable thing to have a "wedding" of the civil rights and peace movements. U

Jones stated that he personally felt that King would not participate in the rally unless other distinguished members of the clergy were there. Jones was told that this would be easy to arrange because they are involved with the clergy at the present time. U

The person with whom Jones was in contact told Jones that his telephone number is UN 1-4020. The current Manhattan, New York telephone directory lists Dr. Marvin Belsky, 794 Park Avenue, New York City, as the subscriber to UN 1-4020. U

Later, according to the source, Jones was in contact with an individual who stated that Dr. Belsky had talked to him and would not pass any opportunity to get Dr. King to participate with them. This person described himself as having worked with Martin (Luther King) and as the former State Chairman of the Americans for Democratic Action in New York. He said that he thought he had exhausted all possibilities (to get King to participate) but is willing to reopen it. This person said he had been discussing this principally with Bayard Rustin and Harry Wachtel. U

Jones commented that he told Dr. Belsky that Dr. King discussed it with him and had tried to arrive at a conclusion a week ago. He said King may already have arrived at a decision which he is not aware of. U

(The "New York Post", a daily New York newspaper, in its issue of October 23, 1959, page 40, contains an article on the new state chairman of the Americans for Democratic Action. This individual is identified as Robert Jay Schwartz.) U

Bayard Rustin

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. U

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. U

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. U

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958. U

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates. (u)

APPENDIX

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Lawyers Guild: U

"National Lawyers Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.) U
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.) U
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire, these offer a bulwark of protection.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)" U
